

ebrary Signs System-Wide Deal with City University of New York (CUNY) for Academic Complete with DASH!

June 14, 2010 – Palo Alto, CA – ebrary®, a leading provider of digital content products and technologies, today announced that all libraries within the City University of New York (CUNY) have subscribed to Academic Complete. Twenty-three institutions including Baruch College, Hunter College, and City College of New York can now offer students and faculty simultaneous, multi-user access to a growing e-book database with more than 48,400 titles, powerful research tools, and their own digital archives created with DASH!™ (Data Sharing, Fast), a complimentary, do-it-yourself e-publishing feature of Academic Complete.

“CUNY is the nation’s leading urban public university serving more than 480,000 students in New York City, so it is quite an honor that they choose Academic Complete for their entire system,” said Gina McCue, Senior Vice President of North American Sales and Business Development. “We look forward to serving CUNY’s students and staff as well as receiving their input on how we can continually improve our Academic Complete flagship product, both in terms of content and technology that makes it easier to find, share, and manage information online.”

Additional key features and benefits of Academic Complete:

- Highly affordable with discounts for systems and consortia.
- Available 24/7 through any web-enabled device including the iPad—no cumbersome downloads.
- Text-to-speech and other accessibility features.
- Continued collection growth at no extra cost throughout the subscription term.
- Free MARC records.
- COUNTER-compliant usage statistics.
- Powerful tools for easy researching:
 - Multiple options for searching, navigating, and browsing.

- ebrary InfoTools™, which turns every word into a portal to additional information on the web. InfoTools can be customized to link patrons to the resources of the library's choice.
- Notes and highlights that are automatically stored on a personal bookshelf.
- Ability to copy/paste and print text with automatic citations and URL hyperlinks back to the source.
- Personal bookshelves with moveable folders that can be emailed to others.
- Much more!
