

Media Contacts

Marty Mullarkey
ebrary 650-475-8752
marty@ebrary.com

Tish Wagner
Wagner Communications
707-963-8935
tish.wagner@ebrary.com

ebrary Chosen for EContent 100 List of “Companies that Matter Most in the Digital Content Industry” for the Fourth Consecutive Year

November 15, 2006 – Palo Alto, CA – ebrary® (www.ebrary.com), a leading provider of eContent services and technology, today announced that it has been named to the 2006 EContent 100 list of “companies that matter most” in the digital content industry. For the fourth consecutive year EContent and Information Today, Inc. editors, writers, and reviewers have named ebrary as a market leader in the Content Delivery category. The 2006 EContent 100 is published in the December 2006 issue of EContent magazine and is available online at www.econtentmag.com.

“The EContent 100 list represents companies providing the most significant impact in the digital content industry today,” said EContent editor Michelle Manafy. “ebrary has consistently stood out as a leader in this industry by developing integrated collections of eBooks and other content under a variety of ownership and subscription models. ebrary demonstrates the winning strategies and solutions needed to succeed in the digital content marketplace.”

“We, at ebrary, are proud to be recognized by the editors at Information Today and EContent and included on the 2006 EContent 100 list,” stated Christopher Warnock, CEO of ebrary. “One of the most gratifying aspects of our business is seeing the growth in use of our technology, not only for the distribution of electronic content, but also the adoption of our platform in new markets, as corporations and institutions look for solutions in distributing their PDF content. We sincerely thank the editors and staff for once again acknowledging ebrary's achievements in the Content Delivery space.”

About EContent Magazine

EContent Magazine, the premier publication for the digital content industry, is a division of Information Today, Inc. The magazine is dedicated to content, one of the most essential commodities any business has to offer. The digital era has created an exponentially increasing need to manage, store and deliver that content in ways that are efficient, effective and affordable. EContent’s mission is to clearly identify and explain emerging digital content trends, strategies and resources that will help readers navigate the content maze. EContent delivers essential research, reporting, news and analysis of content related issues. For additional information, access www.econtentmag.com.

About ebrary (www.ebrary.com) ebrary® is a leading provider of eContent services and technology. The company helps libraries, publishers, and other organizations disseminate valuable information to end users, while improving end-user research and document interaction.

The company has developed a flexible eContent platform, which customers may use in a number of different, integrated capacities: ebrary customers may purchase or subscribe to eBooks and other content under a variety of pricing and access models, and they may license the ebrary platform to distribute, sell, and market their own content online. All options are delivered using a customizable interface and include the ebrary Reader™ with InfoTools™ software, which enable integration with other resources to provide an economical and efficient way to utilize information.

ebrary currently offers a growing selection of more than 120,000 eBooks and other titles from more than 220 leading publishers and aggregators.

For four consecutive years, ebrary has been named to the EContent 100 list of “companies that matter most” in the digital content industry.

Founded in 1999, ebrary is privately held and is headquartered in Palo Alto, CA.

###